

Congratulations again to our 10th District art contest winner, Elle Kruger from Stevenson High School, who participated in the 24th annual Congressional Art Competition along with winners from congressional districts around the nation. All winning artworks will be displayed in the Capitol for the next year. If you come to Washington for a Capitol Tour, be sure to ask your staff tour guide to point out Elle's untitled colored pencil work.